NOTICE

Dec. 2016

Institute of Quality Malaysia (IQM) is a professional body established in 1979 under the Societies Act (1966) to represent the quality practitioners in Malaysia.

As a non-profit organisation to promote the advancement of quality and its application to industry and business in Malaysia, IQM has had established Malaysia Register of Certificated Auditors (MRCA) to regulate Voluntarily Quality Auditors professional conduct of IQM Members. IQM has also established the Dispute Resolution Process Committee to deal with any dispute arising from the quality professional practicing services in Malaysia. This means IQM is s DRP-Provider in Malaysia for quality practitioners, prior to the matter become a legal dispute.

It has come to IQM's attention that numerous persons/companies have been providing and practicing quality services to the members of Public. And such persons/companies are not members of IQM and not registered under MRCA. These persons/companies are hereby encouraged to voluntarily apply and register with IQM/MRCA according to their professional experience so as to obtain a relevant certificates.

The members of the Public are reminded that IQM/MRCA is keeping a Register of those quality professionals and they can check with IQM if a firm or individual is registered with IQM/MRCA. Please contact our IQM Secretariat or visit IQM official website at www.iqm.org.my.

IQM/MRCA members who have not recently updated their contact such as email, mobile phone and new address are hereby encouraged to contact IQM Secretariat. As their clients would like to verify their quality professional status with IQM/MRCA.
